Return Reference Explanation

Grantmaker's Description of How Grants are Used

United Way of North Central Massachusetts monitors the 48 grants through its Community Impact Fund by performing hands-on site visits to all its funded agencies. In addition, semiannual reports are submitted detailing expenditures and program measurements and outcomes. Yearly, an additional review is done by United Way's Leadership Team. They review the recommendations from the individuals who performed the site visits and the semiannual reports to determine whether to continue to fund or defund the program based on the overall effectiveness and impact on the community. This thorough review by United Way staff and 50 community volunteers helps ensure that donors' contributions are creating long-lasting.
